NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

News #1: There will not be a September 1 issue of the FAN this year due to my yearly attendance at the National LGBT Bar Association meeting, combined with attendance at an out-of-town wedding next weekend. The FAN will resume on September 15, 2010 and will be mailed out along with the newest business directory. I anticipate that this may become a yearly FAN break, depending on the date of the bar meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1: Six University of Maine at Machias Students Attend Campus Pride Leadership Camp in Nashville, TN

The Catawamteak Fund of the Maine Community Foundation awarded the 100% Society and Omicron Delta Pi Fraternity $6,250 to send six University of Maine at Machias (UMM) students to the fourth annual "Lead with Pride" leadership institute this summer at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. Advisors to these organizations reviewed applications and the recipients had their registrations paid for as well as a modest travel stipend.

The students attended the five-day conference billed as the "only camp of its kind for LGBT advocacy and social justice." Activities and training for the unique challenges faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and ally campus leaders built upon the mission statement: "At the heart of a remarkable leader is a passion and a vision for change." The UMM students helped make up the close to 60 students from over 35 colleges and universities learning from and interacting with premiere faculty and national leaders in social justice, human rights and civil rights advocacy. Keynote speakers at the camp included Mara Keissling from the National Center for Transgender Equality; Dr. John Corvino of Wayne State University and writer of 365gay.com; out gay athlete Brian Sims who is also on the board chair of EqualityPA; Dr. Marisa Richmond of Tennessee Equality Project; national bisexual advocate and author Robyn Ochs; as well as D'Arcy Meyer of the National Gay & Lesbian Law Association.

Campus Pride's Executive Director Shane Windmeyer and author of The Advocate College Guide for LGBT Students profiling the "100 Best LGBT-Friendly Campuses" stated, "It is our responsibility to build the future leaders who will continue the fight for equality at home, at work, at places of worship, at all levels of community. Those future leaders are on our college campuses today. The camp makes an investment for the future and will play a key role in training the next generation of leaders in the movement for LGBT rights."

After their time at the leadership camp, these students are bringing back ideas for activities and programming. "Camp was the singular best experience I've had to date, the information, the people, and the tools that I received from camp will no doubt help me succeed in helping me make my campus a better place for students like me," Erica McDaniel. Earlier this year, Erica was also awarded a $2000 scholarship from the Portland-based Rainbow Business and Professional Association. Lois-Ann Kuntz, faculty advisor to the 100% Society stated, "We are so grateful to the Catawamteak Fund for sponsoring this amazing leadership experience for these Maine students. Each of them experienced one of the most amazing adventures of their lives and in turn they will help fellow students develop leadership skills; assist their organizations in building networks of national leaders; and facilitate positive change on our campus and in our community for supporting LGBTQIA individuals". The UMM students were also excited to meet with three other Maine student leaders from the University of New England and hope to collaborate in the future.

National sponsors and educational partners for the leadership camp included Cargill, Food Lion, National Gay & Lesbian Task Force, Human Rights Campaign, Campuspeak, HazingPrevention.org, OUTmedia, Matthew Shepard Foundation, Tyvola Design, Gamma Mu Foundation, BW Bastian Foundation, Alliance for Full Acceptance, Charlotte Gay & Lesbian Fund, Consortium of Higher Education LGBT Resource Professionals, Campus Progress, National Youth Advocacy Coalition, National Lesbian and Gay Law Association, Public Identity, Point Foundation, ACPA – College Educators International, The Trevor Project, RSVP Vacations and LGBTQI Office of Vanderbilt University.

The Transgender Fund. With offices in Freeport, Maine, The Transgender Fund is a national, completely independent, 501(c)(3) tax-exempt public charitable foundation. It has been created by and for transgendered individuals. Our funding is derived from contributions by caring individuals of all levels of means. Our strength and independence come from the fact that there is no single benefactor who has seeded the Fund with a large amount of capital. Contributions you make are added to those of your sisters and brothers. Individually, they may seem modest, but collectively they add up to a powerful force that is reinvested in the support of projects fostering the well-being of all our gender variant minorities. FMI email info@tgfund.org OR check the web site at www.tgfund.org

Trans Youth Equality Foundation. Trans Youth Equality Foundation provides education, advocacy and support for transgender and gender-non-conforming children and youth and their families. Our mission is to share information about the unique needs of this community, partnering with families, educators, and service providers to help foster a healthy, caring and safe environment for all transgender children. We are located in Portland Maine but are available to all. We have a social/support group for children that meets once a month. We have a summer zine workshop for youth and any trans youth 18 and under can join. To learn more look at <http://www.transyouthequality.org> and friend us on facebook. 207-478-4087. Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Men's Weekly News Letter is an email newsletter focusing on organizations and activities in southern Maine. Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogleroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Rubyfruit Cafe. A Maine-based, on-line, lesbian virtual community. Rubyfruit Cafe is a lesbian community magazine designed to showcase our lives, creativity, spirituality, politics, and much more. It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it!

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
